Summer Camp Update

Thank you for taking the time to stay up to date on Special Camps amid the uncertain and challenging environment of COVID-19.

At this time, the special camps team is continuing to prepare and plan for a great week of adult and youth summer camps scheduled for July 20-25, 2020.

We are staying informed on CDC and government guidelines, the status of Camp Sumatanga, as well as the needs of our Special Camps Family...You.

Please know that we are praying for all of you and the wisdom and guidance to navigate this unusual situation.

We will keep you updated on any change in status regarding Special Camps this summer!

Many blessings to all of you!

Joy Davis,
Operations Director

Camper registrations are still being accepted for youth and adult summer camps scheduled for July 20-25, 2020. Registrations are accepted based on camper appropriateness and on a first-come, first-serve basis. Don't miss out!

*If summer camps are required to cancel due to the COVID-19 crisis, full refunds will be issued by check.

Volunteers are always needed! We can't have Special Camp without our very important and valued volunteers. We work hard but have even more fun! Please consider volunteering your time to help ensure our camping programs properly serve our special friends. See below for a beautiful counselor testimonial.

Special Camps By Sherry Sublett

Campers who want to pack their bags months before time to go to camp. Counselors who begin to count the days to next year's camp as soon as this year's camp has ended. These are common reactions to Special Camps, and I am one of those counselors.
